Religious Services Yesterday.-Yesterday the pulpit of the 1st Presbyterian Church was filled in the morning by Rev. Mr. O'Brien. There was no service in the afternoon. There were no services during the day at the M. P. Church. Rev. Mr. Bischoff, of St. Louis, formerly of this city, proached to the German Lutheran congregation in the room of the Y. M. C. A. Rev. Mr. Phillips preached in Christ Church in the morning. The pulpits of the other churches were filled by the resident clergy. The following is a report of the work Christian Association:

The St. Asaph-street Sunday School had a most interesting session, with a full corps of tea hers at work. The attendance on the part of the scholars was full and their deportment excellent. The session was closed with addresses to them by Messrs. Hinken and Schekels. The King and West-street Sunday School had its usual full attendance of scholars. This school, in the progress and deportment of scholars, bids fair to exercise a powerful influence for good in the locality in which it is carried on. The Aims House meeting was worked by a sufficient committee; the attendance not so large as usual, but the exercises of the usual interest and fervor.

The Jail services were held by a small committee, but their hearts were greatly encouraged in the work. This activity, in its apparent results, continues to give great promise for ultimate good.

The open-air meeting and colportage work at the Canal basin was again a success. A fuil committee were present, and their hearts were greatly encouraged in seeing the work of the Lord prospering in their hands.

The open-air meeting at the corner of Cameron and Fayette streets was the largest ever held by the Association. The brethren were out in full force, and the greatest interest was manifested by the parties present in the exercises. This meeting will be continued at the point next Sunday evening.

The Sunday afternoon prayer meeting in the First Presbyt rian Church was attended by as full a congregation as is usual at this season. The services partook of the usual happy and fervent spirit characterizing these meetings. A goodly force of the brethren were on hand, and manifested full interest in this work. This meeting will be held next Sunday in the Second Presbyterian Church.

THE EXCURSION PARTY.—The company of experts from Pennsylvania, connected with railroad and mining interests, combined, came to this city in a special car under the direction of Mr. John S. Barbour, President, on Saturday evening. They consist of Gen. Pleasants, of Pottsville, Mr. Lorentz, Mr. Morris, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Daingerfield and some other Virginia gentlemen from Alexandria. We had conversation with Gen. Pleasants and Mr. Lorentz, both of whom are connected-the one as engineer of the mining and the other as engineer of the railroad proper—with the Phila-delphia and Reading Railroad This Company owns numerous coal mines which it operates; thus taking coal from the earth and transport ing it to market. Their object is, if inducements shall be offered, to take iron ore from the line of the railroad between this and Alexandria and bring their coal in return, thus cheapening transportation on both articles by a system of reciprocity that will be mutually benefinal. In course of time, if the iron deposits will seem to justify it, the Company they represent will erect furnaces along the line of the read and go into the business of smelting ores on our soil. The Company has abundant capital and we hope that they may be encouraged by the prospects-together with the good willand reasonable demands of our people—to make investments of money and skilled labor in Piedmont Virginia. It is proper to say that they have been favorably impressed thus far.

This movement was inaugurated by Mr. Barbour, and in response to his overture, these gentlemanly experts, who are thoroughly skilled in such matters, were sent hither to make the necessary investigations. We hope that some-thing beneficial will result from their visit to teeth that are cleaned daily with that matchless teeth that are cleaned daily with that matchless thing beneficial will result from their visit to Virginia. - Lynchburge Virginian.

It was carried ashore and brought to happiness that morning. Carriages for the funeral left here vesterday afternoon by the the Fairy passed Pischtaway Creek this morning. The search for it was still progressing, however, and Mr. John Williams left here today with his drags to assist in it.
